

Community Needs Survey Questions for Urban Youth

Conducting a community needs survey for urban youth helps identify their priorities, challenges, and aspirations. These questions gather crucial data to design targeted programs that improve education, health, and social services. Engaging young people ensures that solutions are relevant and impactful for their development.

Sample Survey Questions

Basic Information

Age:

Gender:  Select

Neighborhood/Area:

Education

1. What is your current level of education?

- Primary
- Secondary
- College/University
- Not currently attending

2. What are the biggest challenges you face in education?

Health & Wellbeing

3. How would you rate your access to healthcare services?

Select

4. What are your main health and wellbeing concerns?

Safety & Community

5. How safe do you feel in your community?

Select

6. What changes would make your neighborhood a better place for youth?

Future Aspirations

7. What are your main goals or dreams for the future?

Submit