

Declaration of Relationship Status Form

This declaration of relationship status form is used to accurately declare your relationship status when applying for government benefits. Providing complete and truthful information is essential and may affect your eligibility for benefits.

Applicant Full Name:

Date of Birth:

Address:

Contact Number:

Relationship Status:

If Married / De Facto, Partner's Full Name:

Date Relationship Commenced:

I hereby declare that the information provided above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge. I understand that providing false or misleading information may result in penalties, including the loss of government benefits.

Applicant _____ Date: _____
Signature: _____

Note: This is a sample form. Please refer to your specific government agency for the official version and further guidance.