

Pre and Post-Training Evaluation Survey for New Hires

The pre and post-training evaluation survey for new hires assesses their knowledge and skills before and after the onboarding process. This helps identify learning gaps and measure training effectiveness to ensure continuous improvement. Collecting feedback also enhances the overall training experience for new employees.