Safety Culture Survey Benchmarks for Healthcare Organizations

Measuring a safety culture survey provides healthcare organizations with critical benchmarks to assess and improve patient safety practices. These benchmarks enable comparison across departments, identify areas for improvement, and promote a proactive safety environment. Ultimately, they support the delivery of high-quality, reliable care.