

Sample Interview Consent Form for Qualitative Study

This sample interview consent form is designed to ensure participants understand the purpose and procedures of a qualitative study. It outlines confidentiality, voluntary participation, and the option to withdraw at any time without penalty. Participants' informed consent is essential for ethical research and data collection.

Consent Form

Study Title: _____

Researcher(s): _____

Institution: _____

Purpose of the Study:

You are invited to participate in a qualitative research study. The purpose of this study is to _____.

Procedures:

If you agree to participate, you will be asked to take part in an interview that will last approximately _____ minutes. The interview will include questions about _____. With your permission, the interview will be audio-recorded.

Voluntary Participation:

Your participation in this study is entirely voluntary. You may choose not to participate or to withdraw from the study at any time without penalty or loss of benefits to which you are otherwise entitled.

Confidentiality:

All information collected in this study will be kept strictly confidential. Any data published will not include your name or any other information that could identify you as a participant.

Risks and Benefits:

There are minimal risks associated with participating in this study. There are no direct benefits to you, but your responses may benefit future research.

Questions or Concerns:

If you have any questions about the study or your rights as a participant, please contact _____.

Consent Statement:

By signing below, you indicate that you have read and understood the information above, have had any questions answered, and agree to participate in the study.

Participant's Name: _____

Signature: _____

Date: _____