

Key performance indicators for annual performance review survey

Key performance indicators (KPI) for an annual performance review survey are essential metrics that evaluate employee effectiveness and progress throughout the year. These indicators provide valuable insights into individual contributions, goal achievements, and areas for improvement. Utilizing KPIs ensures a structured and objective assessment process, fostering continuous development and organizational success.