

Orientation Session Feedback Survey on Facilitator Effectiveness

The orientation session feedback survey evaluates facilitator effectiveness by gathering participant insights on presentation clarity, engagement, and support. This essential feedback helps improve future sessions and ensures facilitators meet learner needs. Collecting honest responses is crucial for enhancing overall training quality.