

Work from Home Internet Connectivity Declaration Form

This Work from Home Internet Connectivity Declaration Form sample ensures employees formally confirm their internet setup meets company requirements. It helps verify stable and reliable connectivity essential for remote work efficiency. Using this form streamlines IT support and accountability across the workforce.

Employee Information

Full Name:

Employee ID:

Department:

Internet Connectivity Details

Internet Service Provider (ISP):

Type of Connection:

--Select--

Declared Minimum Internet Speed:

e.g., 50 Mbps download /

Describe the reliability of your connection:

I have a backup internet connection available.

Declaration

I hereby declare that the information provided above is accurate and that my home internet connection meets the minimum requirements stipulated by the company for remote work. I understand any inaccuracies may affect my work performance and will be communicated promptly to the IT department.

Date:

Signature (type your full name):