Employee Performance Evaluation Form

Technical Staff

The employee performance evaluation form sample for technical staff is designed to assess skills, productivity, and technical expertise effectively. It helps managers provide constructive feedback and identify areas for professional development. This form ensures a structured review process tailored to technical roles.

Employee Information

Employee Name
Job Title
Department
Evaluator Name
Date

Performance Criteria

Criteria	Rating (1-5)	Comments
Technical Knowledge
Problem-solving Ability
Quality of Work
Productivity
Team Collaboration
Communication
Initiative
Adherence to Deadlines

Strengths

```
┌─────────────────────────────────────────────────┐
│                                                 │
│                                                 │
│                                                 │
└─────────────────────────────────────────────────┘
```

Areas for Improvement

```
┌─────────────────────────────────────────────────┐
│                                                 │
│                                                 │
│                                                 │
└─────────────────────────────────────────────────┘
```

Goals for Next Review Period

```
┌─────────────────────────────────────────────────┐
│                                                 │
│                                                 │
│                                                 │
└─────────────────────────────────────────────────┘
```

Employee Comments (Optional)

```
┌─────────────────────────────────────────────────┐
│                                                 │
│                                                 │
│                                                 │
└─────────────────────────────────────────────────┘
```

[Submit Evaluation]