

Group Activity Waiver Form

Corporate Team Building Event

This group activity waiver form example for corporate team building ensures all participants acknowledge risks and agree to terms, promoting a safe and organized event. This document is essential for protecting companies from legal liabilities during team bonding exercises. Clear and concise waivers enhance trust and allow attendees to focus on collaboration and fun.

Participant Information

Full Name:

Department:

Email Address:

Acknowledgement of Risk

I understand that participation in corporate team building activities, which may include but are not limited to physical games, problem-solving challenges, and interactive workshops, carries inherent risks of injury, including but not limited to sprains, strains, falls, or other accidents.

Medical Disclosure

I certify that I am physically fit and capable of participating in these activities. I agree to notify the event organizers of any medical conditions, allergies, or limitations.

Release of Liability

In consideration of being permitted to participate in this event, I hereby release and hold harmless [Company Name], its officers, employees, agents, and representatives from any and all liability for injuries, losses, or damages resulting from my participation, except as caused by gross negligence or intentional misconduct.

Agreement & Consent

I have read and understood this waiver and agree to the terms and conditions stated herein. I participate voluntarily and accept responsibility for my participation.

Participant Signature:

Date: