

Home-Based Business License Application

Sample Form Example

Obtaining a home-based business license is essential for legally operating a business from your residence. This sample example illustrates the typical information required on the license form, such as business details, owner information, and compliance statements. Properly completing this form ensures smooth approval and adherence to local regulations.

1. Business Information

Business Name:

Type of Business:

Planned Start Date:

2. Owner Information

Owner's Full Name:

Contact Phone Number:

Email Address:

Home Address:

3. Business Operation Details

Describe Your Business Activities:

Provide a brief description of products/services provided

Number of Employees (excluding owner):

4. Compliance Statements

zoning regulations.

I confirm the business activities comply with local used on the premises.

I confirm that no hazardous materials will be stored or as outlined by local ordinance.

I agree to adhere to restrictions on exterior signage

5. Signature

Applicant Signature:Date:

Note: This sample form is for reference only. Local requirements may vary. Please consult your city or county's business licensing office for the official application form and additional instructions.