

Impact of Service Speed in Service Quality Surveys

The impact of service speed is a critical factor influencing customer satisfaction in service quality surveys. Faster service often leads to higher ratings, as it enhances the overall customer experience. Consequently, businesses prioritize reducing wait times to improve their survey outcomes and customer loyalty.