

Internship Evaluation Survey for Engineering Students

The internship evaluation survey for engineering students gathers valuable feedback on their practical experience and skill development. This survey helps improve internship programs by assessing the effectiveness of training and real-world application. It ensures that engineering students gain meaningful insights and career readiness through their internships.

Intern Information

Full Name:

University/College:

Engineering Program/Discipline:

Year of Study:

Internship Details

Company/Organization:

Supervisor's Name:

Internship Duration:

Department/Division:

Evaluation Questions

1. How would you rate the orientation and training you received at the beginning of your internship?

Excellent ▼

2. To what extent did the internship help you develop technical skills relevant to your field?

To a great extent ▼

3. How effectively were you able to apply classroom knowledge to real-world projects?

Very effectively ▼

4. Rate your overall satisfaction with your internship experience:

Very satisfied ▼

5. Please provide any suggestions for improving the internship program:

Submit Survey