

Purchase Receipt Policy for Employee Reimbursements

Our purchase receipt policy ensures all employee reimbursements are supported by valid receipts to maintain transparency and accountability. Employees must submit itemized receipts within the specified timeframe for approval. This process helps streamline expense verification and compliance with company financial regulations.