

Music Rights Licensing Contract Form

A music rights licensing contract form example outlines the legal agreement between a rights holder and a licensee, detailing the terms for using copyrighted music. This document ensures both parties agree on payment, usage rights, and duration of the license. Properly structured contracts protect intellectual property and facilitate smooth licensing transactions.

1. Parties

Rights Holder (Licensor):	[Licensor Name]
Licensee:	[Licensee Name]

2. Work Details

Title of Work:	[Song/Composition Title]
Composer/Author:	[Composer Name]
ISWC/ISRC Number (if applicable):	[Number]

3. Grant of Rights

The Licensor grants the Licensee the non-exclusive right to use the above-listed musical work for the following purposes:

- Type of use: [e.g., Synchronization, Public Performance, Reproduction]
- Media: [e.g., Online video, Television, Radio, Advertisement]
- Territory: [e.g., Worldwide, U.S. only]
- Duration: [e.g., 1 year, in perpetuity]

4. Payment Terms

The Licensee agrees to pay the Licensor the following fee(s) for the licensed rights:

- License Fee: $[Amount]
- Payment Due: [Due Date]
- Additional Royalties (if any): [Details]

5. Warranties & Representations

- The Licensor warrants they hold all necessary rights to license the work.
- The Licensee agrees not to use the work beyond the agreed terms.

6. Term & Termination

This agreement is valid for the term specified above. Either party may terminate this agreement in case of breach of contract with [Number] days written notice.

7. Signatures

Licensor Signature:	_____	Date: _____
Licensee Signature:	_____	Date: _____

This sample is for informational purposes only. For legal validity, consult a qualified attorney.