

Site-Specific Environmental Permit Form – Mining Operations

This site-specific environmental permit form sample is designed to streamline the application process for mining operations, ensuring compliance with environmental regulations. It captures essential data about the mining site, operational practices, and impact mitigation measures. Utilizing this form helps operators maintain transparency and environmental responsibility.

1. Applicant Information

Company/Operator Name:

Contact Person:

Mailing Address:

Phone Number:

Email Address:

2. Mining Site Details

Site Name/ID:

Physical Location (latitude/longitude or address):

Site Area (hectares/acres):

Type of Resource to be Mined:

Proposed Start Date:

Estimated Duration of Operation (years):

3. Environmental Management and Mitigation

Describe operational practices to minimize environmental impact:

Waste Management Plan (brief summary):

Water Use and Management:

Site Rehabilitation and Closure Plan:

4. Regulatory Compliance

List of other permits and approvals obtained or required:

Environmental Impact Assessment (EIA) status:

Select one

5. Declarations & Attachments

Please attach site map, EIA documents, and any other supporting materials as required by the authority.

I declare that the information provided is accurate to the best of my knowledge.

I Agree

Submit Application