

Video Consent Form for Employees

A video consent form sample for employees ensures that all staff members provide clear permission before being recorded or featured in company videos. This document protects both the organization and employees by outlining rights and usage terms. Utilizing a standardized form helps maintain transparency and compliance with privacy regulations.

Employee Video Consent Form

Employee Name:

Department:

Description of Video/Project:

Consent Agreement

I hereby grant [Company Name] and its representatives the right to record, use, and distribute my image, likeness, and audio/video recordings for business-related purposes including, but not limited to, marketing, training, or internal communications. I understand that these materials may be used in print, on the internet, and via social media platforms.

I also understand that:

- I will not receive financial compensation for the use of my image or recordings.
- I have the right to withdraw my consent at any time by submitting a written request to HR.
- This consent remains valid unless revoked in writing.

Employee Signature:

Date:

Submit

Note: Please consult your organization's legal team or HR department for local requirements or additional clauses tailored to your company.