

Interview Consent Form Sample for Academic Research

An interview consent form sample for academic research serves as a crucial document ensuring participants are fully informed about the study's purpose, procedures, and confidentiality measures. It helps establish ethical standards by obtaining voluntary consent before interviews commence. Utilizing a clear and comprehensive consent form enhances trust and protects both researchers and participants throughout the academic investigation.

Sample Interview Consent Form

Participant Information

Name of Participant:

Contact Information (Email/Phone):

Research Study Information

Title of Study:

Researcher(s):

Institution:

Consent Information

1. I have been informed about the purpose, methods, and procedures of this research study.

2. I understand that my participation is voluntary and I can withdraw at any time without penalty.

3. I am aware that my confidentiality will be maintained, and data will only be used for academic purposes.

4. I give permission for the interview to be audio recorded (if applicable).

5. I have had the opportunity to ask questions about the research and received satisfactory answers.

☐

I voluntarily agree to participate in this research interview.

Signature of Participant:

Date:

Submit

For any questions regarding the research, please contact:
Researcher Name: _____
Email: _____