Monthly Attendance Report for Project Teams

The monthly attendance report provides a detailed overview of team members' presence and punctuality across all project groups. It helps project managers track attendance patterns and ensure accountability. This report is essential for optimizing resource allocation and improving team productivity.