

Patient Health Questionnaire Scoring Guidelines

The Patient Health Questionnaire scoring guidelines provide a standardized method to assess the severity of mental health conditions such as depression and anxiety. These guidelines help healthcare professionals interpret questionnaire results accurately for effective diagnosis and treatment planning. Following the scoring criteria ensures consistent patient evaluation across different clinical settings.