

Workshop Participant Feedback Survey Examples

Collecting comprehensive workshop participant feedback is essential for evaluating the effectiveness and impact of training sessions. Examples of feedback surveys often include questions about content relevance, instructor performance, and overall satisfaction. Analyzing these responses helps organizers enhance future workshops and better meet participants' needs.

Sample Feedback Survey

Participant Information
Name (optional):	<input type="text"/>
Workshop Title:	<input type="text"/>
Feedback Questions
1. How would you rate the relevance of the workshop content?
<input type="radio"/> 1 - Not relevant <input type="radio"/> 2 <input type="radio"/> 3 <input type="radio"/> 4 <input type="radio"/> 5 - Highly relevant
2. How would you rate the instructor's performance?
<input type="radio"/> 1 - Poor <input type="radio"/> 2 <input type="radio"/> 3 <input type="radio"/> 4 <input type="radio"/> 5 - Excellent
3. Overall, how satisfied are you with the workshop?
<input type="radio"/> 1 - Very dissatisfied <input type="radio"/> 2 <input type="radio"/> 3 <input type="radio"/> 4 <input type="radio"/> 5 - Very satisfied
4. What aspects of the workshop did you find most valuable?
<input type="text"/>
5. What improvements would you suggest for future workshops?
<input type="text"/>

Submit Feedback