

Confidentiality Statement Template for Research Participants

This confidentiality statement template ensures that research participants' personal information is protected and used responsibly. It clearly outlines the measures taken to maintain privacy and secure data during and after the study. Using this template helps build trust and complies with ethical research standards.

Confidentiality Statement

As a participant in this research study, your privacy and the confidentiality of your personal information are of utmost importance to us. We are committed to maintaining the security and confidentiality of any data you provide. The following assurances are made to all research participants:

- Your personal information will be kept strictly confidential and will only be used for the purpose of this study.
- All data collected will be stored securely, accessible only to authorized research personnel.
- Your identity will not be revealed in any reports or publications resulting from this study. Any identifying information will be removed or anonymized.
- No information that could identify you will be shared with third parties without your explicit, written consent, except as required by law.
- You may withdraw from the study at any time, and your data will be removed upon request.

If you have any questions or concerns about your privacy or the confidentiality of your information, please contact the research team at the provided contact details.
