

New Client Intake Form Sample for Counseling

Our new client intake form sample for counseling is designed to streamline the onboarding process, ensuring all essential client information is captured efficiently. This form helps counselors gather personal details, clinical history, and consent, facilitating a smooth start to the therapeutic relationship. Using this template promotes organized and professional client management from the outset.

Personal Information

Full Name:

Date of Birth:

Gender:

Please select

Address:

Phone Number:

Email:

Emergency Contact

Name:

Phone Number:

Relationship:

Clinical History

What brings you to counseling?

Have you previously attended counseling/therapy?

Please select

Medical conditions (if any):

Are you currently taking any medications?

What are your goals for counseling?

Consent & Agreement

I consent to participate in counseling and understand the privacy policy.

Submit Intake Form