

Survey to Assess Barriers to Team Collaboration

This survey is designed to identify and assess barriers to effective team collaboration within organizations. By gathering insights from team members, it aims to highlight challenges and areas for improvement, fostering a more cohesive and productive work environment. The results will support informed strategies to enhance communication and teamwork.