Consent Agreement

I, the undersigned podcast guest, hereby give my consent to be recorded on video and audio for the purposes of creating and distributing podcast content by the host or production company. I understand that all or part of this recording may be used, edited, distributed, and published across various platforms, including but not limited to streaming services, social media, and promotional materials.

- I acknowledge that I will not receive any compensation for the use of this recording, unless otherwise agreed in writing.
- I confirm that my participation is voluntary and that I have the right to request the removal of content in accordance with applicable laws and at the discretion of the host.
- I hereby release and hold harmless the podcast host and production team from any and all claims, demands, and causes of action arising out of the use of this recording.

☐ I have read and understood the above agreement and give my consent to be recorded.
