

Sales Analysis Report for Online and Offline Channels

The sales analysis report provides a comprehensive overview of performance across both online and offline channels, identifying key trends and opportunities. This report helps businesses optimize marketing strategies and improve revenue streams by comparing sales data effectively. It enables informed decision-making to enhance overall channel efficiency and customer engagement.