Training Program Attendance Summary Report

The training program attendance summary report provides a comprehensive overview of participant engagement, highlighting attendance rates and trends throughout the course. This report helps organizations track employee progress and identify areas for improvement in training effectiveness. Accessible and easy to interpret, it supports informed decision-making for future training initiatives.