

Monthly Attendance Report by Department

The monthly attendance report by department provides a detailed overview of employee presence and absences, helping managers track workforce productivity. This report highlights trends and identifies areas needing attention to improve overall attendance. Regular analysis ensures efficient resource allocation and supports organizational planning.