Inspection Clause

Inspection Rights: Buyer shall have the right to inspect the property within days after the effective date of this contract. The inspection may include, but is not limited to, structural, electrical, plumbing, HVAC, and pest inspections.

Obligations: Seller agrees to provide reasonable access for all inspections and to have all utilities operational during the inspection period. Buyer must notify seller in writing of any objections found during inspections within the inspection period.

Remedies: Should significant defects be found, Buyer may: (a) request Seller to complete specified repairs; (b) negotiate a reduction in sale price; or (c) terminate this agreement and receive a full deposit refund.

Acceptance: Failure to object within the inspection period constitutes acceptance of property condition by Buyer.
