

Remote Work Experience Survey on Communication Challenges

The remote work experience survey explores common communication challenges faced by employees working from home. It aims to identify barriers and improve virtual collaboration for enhanced productivity. Understanding these issues helps organizations create better remote work strategies.