

Project Assessment Form Sample

For Research Projects

The project assessment form sample for research projects provides a structured template to evaluate key aspects such as objectives, methodology, and outcomes. It ensures consistent and comprehensive reviews, facilitating effective project management and quality assurance. Utilizing this form helps streamline the assessment process and improve overall research effectiveness.

Project Information
Project Title:	<input type="text"/>
Researcher(s):	<input type="text"/>
Assessment Date:	<input type="text"/>
Assessment Criteria
1 Clarity of Objectives Are the project goals clear, specific, and achievable?	<input type="text"/> Select <input type="button" value="▼"/> Comments: <input type="text"/>
2 Appropriateness of Methodology Is the methodology suitable and well-designed to address project objectives?	<input type="text"/> Select <input type="button" value="▼"/> Comments: <input type="text"/>
3 Literature Review Is the review comprehensive and relevant?	<input type="text"/> Select <input type="button" value="▼"/> Comments: <input type="text"/>
4 Expected Outcomes Are the anticipated outcomes realistic and valuable?	<input type="text"/> Select <input type="button" value="▼"/> Comments: <input type="text"/>
5 Feasibility & Resources Are the timeline and resources adequate for successful completion?	<input type="text"/> Select <input type="button" value="▼"/> Comments: <input type="text"/>
Overall Evaluation
Strengths:	<input type="text"/>
Areas for Improvement:	<input type="text"/>
Recommendations:	<input type="text"/>

Note: This form serves as a sample template and may be adapted according to specific institutional or project needs.