Purpose of Counseling

The purpose of school counseling sessions is to help students with academic, personal, social, or emotional concerns and to promote their well-being and overall school success.

Procedures

Counseling may take place individually or in groups, during school hours. The counselor will maintain regular communication with parents/guardians regarding significant developments as appropriate.

Confidentiality

Student information shared during counseling sessions will remain confidential unless there is concern for the student's safety or as required by law.

Consent Statement

I, the undersigned, understand the nature of school counseling services as described above and give my consent for my child to participate in counseling sessions provided by the school counselor.
