

Third Party Consent to Release Information Form

The Third Party Consent to Release Information Form sample is a crucial document that authorizes the release of personal or confidential information to an authorized third party. It ensures compliance with privacy laws while facilitating secure communication between involved parties. Using this form protects both the information provider and recipient by clearly outlining consent details.

1. Person Granting Consent

Full Name:

Date of Birth:

Address:

2. Third Party Details

Name of Third Party/Organization:

Contact Information:

3. Details of Information to be Released

Information to be Released (describe specifically):

4. Purpose of Release

Purpose(s) for which the information is to be released:

5. Period of Consent

Consent Valid From:

Consent Expires On:

6. Consent Declaration

I, the undersigned, hereby authorize the release of my personal/confidential information as described above to the third party named in this form. I understand that this consent may be withdrawn by me at any time by providing written notice.

Signature:

Date:

NOTE: Please attach a copy of valid photo identification to verify identity.