

Variance Request Zoning Permit Form

The variance request zoning permit form sample is designed to facilitate applications for exceptions to local zoning regulations. It ensures applicants provide necessary details to justify their requested variance effectively. Using this form streamlines the review process by zoning authorities.

Applicant Information

Full Name:

Mailing Address:

Phone Number:

Email Address:

Property Information

Property Address:

Parcel Number/ID:

Current Zoning District:

Variance Request Details

Describe the variance requested and the section(s) of code to be varied:

Explain the hardship or practical difficulty justifying the variance:

Describe how the variance will impact neighboring properties:

Previous variance requests for the property (if any):

Attachments

Please attach the following documents to complete your application:

- Site plan or property map
- Legal description of property
- Photographs supporting variance request (optional)
- Other supporting documentation as required by the zoning authority

Applicant Certification

I hereby certify that the information provided is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

Signature:

Type full name

Date:

Submit Application