

Community Needs Survey for Educational Resources

Conducting a community needs survey for educational resources helps identify gaps and prioritize support for learners. This survey gathers valuable insights from community members to tailor educational programs effectively. The resulting data ensures resources address actual needs, promoting inclusive and equitable learning opportunities.