

Construction Site Hazard Assessment Form Sample

A construction site hazard assessment form sample is a vital document used to identify and evaluate potential safety risks on a construction site. This form helps ensure that all hazards are systematically assessed to prevent accidents and maintain compliance with safety regulations. Utilizing a clear and comprehensive template promotes a safer working environment for all personnel involved.

1. Project & Location Details
Project Name:
Project Number:
Location:
Date of Assessment:
Assessor(s):

2. Hazard Identification & Assessment
Hazard Description	Potential Risk	People At Risk	Risk Level (L/M/H)	Existing Controls	Additional Controls Needed	Responsible Person
Example: Working at height	Falls, serious injury	Workers, contractors	M	Guardrails, harnesses	Regular inspection of equipment	Site Supervisor

3. Assessment Review & Follow-Up
Follow-up Actions Required
Completion Date
Reviewed By

4. Signatures
Assessor Name & Signature
Date
Supervisor/Manager Name & Signature
Date	