

Demographic Questionnaire

A demographic questionnaire in psychological research collects essential participant information such as age, gender, education, and ethnicity. This data helps researchers analyze and interpret study results within diverse population contexts. Accurate demographics enhance the validity and generalizability of psychological findings.

Basic Information

Age:

Gender:  Select your gender

Highest Level of Education Completed:  Select education level

Ethnicity:  Please specify

Optional Information

Employment Status:  Select status

Marital Status:  Select status