

Post-training Survey to Assess Skill Improvement

The post-training survey is designed to evaluate the effectiveness of the training by measuring participants' skill improvement. It gathers valuable feedback on knowledge gained and areas needing further development. This assessment ensures continuous enhancement of training programs.