

Weekly Progress Report for Client Communication

The weekly progress report provides a concise summary of project developments, ensuring transparent client communication. It highlights key achievements, potential challenges, and upcoming milestones. This structured update fosters trust and keeps clients informed about the project's status.